

Panel discussion

New challenges

Afghanistan – Pakistan: what they mean for EU and for Serbia

13 December 2017

EU Info Centre Belgrade (Kralja Milana 7)

17:00 – 18:30

The EU Info Centre and Centre for the Analysis of Foreign Policy (CAPE) organize a panel discussion on new challenges which developments in Central Asia pose for the European union but also for the aspiring countries like Serbia.

The panel discussion will be moderated by Sonja Stojanovic-Gajic, Belgrade Centre for Security Policy president.

Agenda

17:00 - 17:05 Welcome address: Nicolas Bizel, Head of Operations I, EU Delegation to Serbia

17:05 - 17:30 New challenges for the EU - how to cope with and what are implications of developments in Afghanistan and Pakistan: Didier Chaudet, CAPE Editing Director

17:30 – 18:00 New challenges for Serbia - how to cope with migration crisis and to adapt its foreign policy: Vladimir Petronijevic, Group 484 Director executive

18:00 Discussion, questions

18:30 Cocktail